

The Owl and the Pussycat by Edward Lear

The owl and the pussycat went to sea
In a beautiful pea green boat

They took some honey and plenty of money
Wrapped up in a five pound note

The owl looked up to the stars above
And sang to a small guitar

"O lovely Pussy! O Pussy my love
What a beautiful pussy you are, you are, you are,
What a beautiful pussy you are"

Pussy said to the owl "You elegant fowl,
How charmingly sweet you sing.

"O let us be married, too long have we tarried;
But what shall we do for a ring?"

They sailed away, for a year and a day,
To the land where the Bong-tree grows,

And there in the wood a piggy-wig stood
With a ring in the end of his nose, his nose, his nose
With a ring in the end of his nose.

"Dear Pig, are you willing to sell for 1 shilling your ring?"

Said the Piggy - "I will"

So they took it away, and were married next day
By the turkey who lives on the hill,

They dined on mice and slices of quince,
Which they ate with a runcible spoon.

And hand in hand, on the edge of the sand,
They danced by the light of the moon, the moon, the moon They danced by the light of the moon
